Roosevelt Labeled Suit Up

Marquette, Mich., May 26—In the circuit court here today, the civil libel suit of Col. Roosevelt against George A. Newett, editor and owner of the Iron Ore, published at Ishpeming, was called for trial. A statement published in the Iron Ore during the campaign last fall, in which it was intimated that Col. Roosevelt drank liquor to excess, is responsible for the litigation. Damages of $10,000 are asked. Considerable difficulty in securing a jury is anticipated.

Jap to Play Hoppe for Title

New York, May 26—The question of whether William F. Hoppe, the youthful Billiard player, is invincible with the cue may find its answer in the match at the Hotel Astor tomorrow night, when he will defend his title of 18.2 balkline champion against Koji Yamada, the Japanese expert. The contest promises to be a very attractive one to all lovers of the art of caroms. Both of the principals are brilliant exponents of the intricacies and beauties of balkline billiards. In the tournament for the world's championship at the Hotel Astor last winter Yamada was the only player who scored a victory over Hoppe.

AN EXPLANATION

Lest there be some misunderstanding among the parents of the Boy Scouts who left this morning without their lunches, I make this explanation. The Imperial cafe had promised to provide the lunches and Sunday we prepared everything and had only a few minutes work in order to have the lunches ready. We had been told that they would leave at 6 o'clock. We came down and went to work at 5. At 5:10 Mr. Cullins came in and called for the lunches. We explained that they would be ready in 10 or 15 minutes but he would not wait.

Any erroneous reflection on the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

Obituaries and Resolutions of Respect of less than 100 words will be published free. For all matter in excess of 100 words a charge of one cent per word will be made. Count your words and remit with manuscript.

A bunch of heavily armed Nebraska men made two unsuccessful attempts to lynch a negro confined in the jail at Hiawatha, Kansas, on charge of attacking a white woman. Evidently those fellows either lack nerve or else lacking in practice.

The News has hoped that the office of Indian Commissioner would be given to some citizen of Oklahoma, since this state is more affected by this office than any other, but if it had to go to another state, we consider Cato Wells, of Cleburne, Texas, who has been appointed to the place by President Wilson, as a man eminently qualified for the office. We believe that our state will get just treatment at his hands.

Whatever we do, let us not use our influence toward abolishing the State Normals. Let us not take a backward step with our educational institutions. Oklahoma now ranks with the leading educational states. It did not cost the people one cent to build these normals, and costs very little to maintain them and as they are needed, let us keep them. Governor Cruce does not know the necessity of an education and this is why he wants to wipe out the normals. He cries to cut down expenses and abolish useless offices, but every time the legislature abolishes an office he vetoes the bill simply because it happens to be one of his pets that is holding it. —Stonewall News.

STUDENTS ENROLLING FOR SUMMER TERM

Students for the summer term of the normal have been arriving today in bunches. The work of enrolling has proceeded rapidly, but all parties have been so rushed with business that it was impossible to get any thing like an accurate estimate on the number actually enrolled. The figures will be given Tuesday, however.

The senior class has been advised that the annuals were shipped on the 24th and are expected to arrive at any time.

FAIR WEATHER PROMISED FOR THIS WEEK

Washington, May 25 — Unsettled weather will open the coming week throughout the country east of the Mississippi river, according to the Weather Bureau's weekly bulletin.

"There will be showers Monday and Tuesday in the great central valleys and the lake region," the bulletin says, "and Tuesday or Wednesday in the Middle Atlantic States and New England. For the South, the Southwest and the extreme Central West present indications favor fair weather generally. In the Northwest, about the middle of the week, local showers are probable.

"It will be warmer in the South, but there are no immediate prospects of unseasonably warm weather over any portion of the country. There will be frosts Monday morning in the interior of New England and eastern New York, and low temperatures will continue for a day or two over the Northern and Eastern portions of the country, followed by warmer conditions by the middle of the week.

DISTRICT JUDGE MCKEOWN HOLDS COURT AT MADILL

Judge Tom D. McKeown of Ada spent last week here holding district court in the absence of Judge Hachett who was called away to complete some judicial work at Atoka.

Judge was gladly received. He has been assigned to Madill before and won a number of friends by his prompt and accurate decisions and pleasant manner of handling all matters brought before him.

While here Judge McKeown had the unpleasant duty of correcting two of our local attorneys for unprofessional conduct in his presence and at the same time admonishing the entire bar here to use more courtesy toward each other. After some explaining and asking of pardon on the part of the attorneys the usual good feeling was restored and all went well again.

Judge McKeown returned to his home at Ada, Sunday to resume his usual duties as judge of that district. —Madill News-Democrat.

The Joy Of Coming Motherhood

A Wonderful Remedy That is a Natural Aid and Relieves the Tension.

Mother's Friend, a famous external remedy, is the only one known that is able to reach all the different parts involved. It is a penetrating application after the formula of a noted family doctor, and lubricates every muscle, nerve, tissue or tendon affected. It goes directly to the strained portions and gently but surely relieves all tendency to sickness or strain.

By its daily use there will be no pain, no distress, no nausea, no danger of laceration or other accident, and the period will be one of supreme comfort and joyful anticipation.

To all young women Mother's Friend is one of the greatest of all helpful influences, for it robs childbirth of all its agonies and dangers, dispels all the doubt and dread, all sense of fear, and thus enables the mind and body to await the greatest event in a woman's life with untrammelled gladness.

Mother's Friend is a most cherished remedy in thousands of homes, and is of such peculiar merit and value as to make it essentially one to be recommended by all women.

You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle, or the druggist will gladly get it for you if you insist upon it. Mother's Friend is prepared only by The Bradford Regulator Co., 137 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who will send you by mail, sealed, a very instructive book to expectant mothers. Write for it to-day.

CHATTANOOGA GREET'S GRAY

THOUSANDS OF VETERANS AND VISITORS RECEIVE ROYAL WELCOME

Chattanooga, May 26—Decorated as never before in her history, Chattanooga today threw her gates wide open in welcome to the thousands of arriving Confederate veterans, sons of the Confederacy and other visitors.

This is the twenty-third annual reunion of the veterans, the eighteenth of the sons. Every arriving train today was crowded with visitors. The veterans are much more feeble than when they were here for their first reunion twenty-three years ago. The number has been thinned by death and age has dimmed their eyes, bent their forms and given a snowy appearance to the beards and hair. But something of the old spirit of half a century ago was still manifest as the delegations marched from the railway stations to the reunion headquarters, with a band playing "Dixie" at the head of the column and the Stars and Bars fluttering in the breeze.

The geographical location of Chattanooga is exceptionally well suited for the reunion. North and south and east and west are the States which rallied to the standards of Lee and Jackson, and in the immediate vicinity were fought the great battles of Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge. Half a dozen trunk lines of railroad enter the city from all directions and scores of special trains are being run for the convenience of veterans and other visitors.

At a cost of thousands of dollars the reunion committee has had all the principal streets profusely decorated. Ample provision has been made in the way of rest stations, temporary hospitals, lunch stands and other arrangements for the convenience and welfare of the visitors. The government's 10,000 tents are erected in Jackson Park, a delightful resort near the business section of the city, and this is called Camp Stewart, in honor of the late Gen. A. P. Stewart.

The reunion will be presided over by Gen. Bennett Young of Louisville, the commander-in-chief. Tomorrow and Wednesday will be devoted largely to the business of the organization, and Thursday the parade of the old guard will take place.

The custom of appointing young women, generally daughters of Confederate soldiers, to act as sponsors and maids of honor for the several States has so spread that not only the States, but nearly all the divisions, brigades and regiments are so represented. Already many of the scores of sponsors and maids have arrived and the social features of the reunion will be notable.

The entertainment programme will be ushered in tomorrow afternoon with a lawn party at Warner park in honor of the sponsors and attendants. Later in the evening the Daughters of the Confederacy will give a reception in honor of the veterans. Wednesday the sponsors will be entertained at a breakfast at the Golf and Country Club and Wednesday night the Sons of the Veteran's ball will be given.

The grand ball of the Confederate veterans, which will bring the entertainment programme to a climax, will take place Thursday night. Commander-in-Chief Young will lead the grand march, accompanied by Miss Kate Daffan, sponsor for the South. After them will come all of the sponsors and maids of honor, each accompanied by a distinguished Confederate veteran.

The detailed programme of events as finally prepared for the opening of the reunion tomorrow is as follows:

10:00 a. m.—Services of the Memorial associations at the Auditorium.
2:00 p. m.—United Confederate Veterans' business meeting resumed. Meetings of Sons of Veterans and Confederate States Memorial Association.

4:00 p. m.—Start of the Sponsor's Parade.
5:00 p. m.—Entertainment of sponsors at Warner Park.

8:00 p. m.—Daughter's reception for veterans at Chamberlain field.

8:00 p. m.—Business sessions of the veterans at Auditorium.

8:00 p. m.—Business session of the Sons at Chamber of Commerce.

Southern Women's Golf Tourney
Memphis, May 26—A large and representative field of contestants lined up on the links of the Memphis Country club today at the opening of the third annual championship tournament of the Women's Southern Golf Association. The tournament will continue through the entire week. The final match round for the title will be played Friday, with mixed foursomes Saturday.

BOY SCOUTS LEAVE ON LONG HIKE

The boy scouts left this morning at 6 o'clock, strictly according to schedule. Quite a number of parents and friends turned out to wish them a prosperous trip. As they started towards Center they were given a farewell salute by the whistles of the city.

Walter Harris followed the scouts as far as Center on his where. He said that two good ladies had prepared dinner for the boys and they did ample justice to the feast. They arrived at 10:15 and expected to leave at noon and reach Stratford about 4 p. m. Walter reported that most of them shed their coats long before they had reached Center.

Cohans Farewell of the Stage

Chicago, Ill., May 24—With the fall of the curtain on "Broadway Jones" at the Grand Opera House tonight, George M. Cohan, author and star of the play, owner of the theatre and, all in all, probably the greatest financial "winner" the theatrical game has ever produced, takes his permanent farewell of the stage. Hereafter the young author-playwright-song writer-manager will confine his business energies to writing plays and Managing the Cohan and Harris productions and theatres. The stage will know him no more as an actor.

Less than a score of years ago, Mr. Cohan was a humble private in the ranks of the vast army of American vaudeville entertainers. Now, at thirty-five years of age, he is in the enjoyment of a fortune estimated at $2,000,000 and every dollar of it was earned by his own efforts.

According to the calendar, Mr. Cohan is a real live nephew of Uncle Sam, for he was born on the morning of July 4, 1878. The particular spot selected for his birthplace was Providence, R. I., and it was in the same city that he made his debut ten years later in a play written by his father, and of which his mother was the business manager. For several seasons following young Cohan, with his parents and sister, toured the vaudeville circuit under the name of the "Four Cohans." His first effort as a play writer was "The Governor's Son." It was successful and Mr. Cohan's success was assured. In rapid succession followed "Little Johnny Jones," "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," "Fifty-five Miles from Boston," "The Man who Owns Broadway," and several other pieces which met with phenomenal success. As a writer of popular songs Mr. Cohan also has earned an enviable reputation and at the same time added many dollars to his pile.

FIRST PREMIUM LIST IS READY

Tulsa, Okla., May 26—The advance premium list for the International Dry-Farming Congress and exposition in Tulsa may now be had by farmers everywhere who are planning to enter crops in the big $20,000 competition here next October. A little book has been prepared giving all of the classes in which entries may be made, telling of the rules for the exposition and giving valuable hints on the preparation of exhibits for show purposes. Special points which will be considered by the judges in making their awards are also discussed fully, so that the farmer may know how to select and handle his best crops for exposition purposes. The book will be sent anywhere in the world on application to the Dry-Farming Congress at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE

Lies In That Cough and Weak, Worn Out Condition

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent la grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Crabill of Strausburg, Va., says: "Grippe left me weak, run-down and with a severe cough from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money.—Gwin & Mays Drug Company, Ada, Oklahoma. Adv. P. S. For Eczema of Scalp try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

THE STEEDMAN PUBLIC SCHOOL CLOSING EXERCISES

The Steedman Public school having finished the most successful term of school since the district was organized, and having the only rural or village school to put out eighth grade pupils in eastern Pontotoc county, the pupils ably assisted by Prof. W. O. Pratt, for the past year principal of the school, and employed for the next term, and Miss Ola Amed of the primary department, are preparing to render a two-night programme on Thursday and Friday, May 29-30.

One feature of the programme on Thursday night will be an address by Prof. W. T. Melton, county superintendent-elect of Ada, and on Friday night an address by Hon. Tom D. McKeown, district judge, also of Ada.

The pupils and teachers have worked hard to make a success of their program and have received royal support from the people. Prof. Pratt is to be highly commended for his earnest and zealous work in behalf of the boys and girls of Steedman school district; and more especially since he bears the distinction of being the only teacher on the east side of the county, outside of Stonewall and Allen to put out eighth grade pupils, and for these reasons we extend to him our hearty support for next year.

W. J. THOMPSON AND WIFE LOSE CHILD

Sunday morning Arthur, the twenty-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson, who live on 15th and Cherry avenues, died from an attack of measles and pneumonia. The funeral and interment will take place at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The death of an infant is like the withering of the bud of a beautiful flower that is just ready to open and give forth its beauty and fragrance to the world. All looks promising and the hopes of those who care for it beat high for the future, only to have these hopes dashed to earth and crushed at a time least expected. The parting is indeed bitter, but the parents have the sustaining hope of a meeting in a bright hereafter.

FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow.

A harmless remedy made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for the teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.
After a few applications of this simple, harmless, remedy, your hair will be gradually restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out, but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give your money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.—

A NEW PERFECTION OIL STOVE

THE New Perfection Oil Stove is not an experiment, not an innovation, not a dream—it is a practical, economical, labor-saving, strength-conserving cooking stove. It is safe to handle, there being no danger whatever in using the stove. The New Perfection is a money-saver in fuel, requiring very little oil to cook a meal. It saves work, because it requires only the turn of a screw and a match to start a fire—no long waits for wet, sobby wood or slow-burning coal to catch fire. And best of all this stove saves the housewife's strength—no sweltering kitchen or blistering fire to sap a woman's vitality in those long summer days when it is hard enough at best to keep going.

What Ada Women Say:

MRS. J. W. DAVIS
I regard the New Perfection Oil Stove an inexpensive luxury; that is, that it gives us good results at no more cost, less heat in the room, and we find it such a convenience in boiling dinner, as we can use only one lamp if we wish and do not have to replenish the fire so often. Oh, how quickly we can prepare breakfast—ready for cooking as soon as lamp is lit.

MRS. J. W. DAVIS.
MRS. ALDRICH
I consider an oil stove a great luxury, a labor saver, and a fuel saver in every woman's kitchen. I am using a New Perfection and find it very satisfactory.

MRS. C. S. ALDRICH.
MRS. YEAGER
Perfection No. 3 is very satisfactory and economical. Gives as good service in winter as summer. The oven gives perfect satisfaction.

MRS. A. B. YEAGER.
MRS. CHILDRESS
My friends induced me to buy a New Perfection Oil Stove. I find it very satisfactory in every way.

MRS. FRED CHILDRESS.

MRS. SKINNER
Two years ago I bought a second-hand Perfection Oil Stove and am still using it. As its name implies, it is perfection in the stove line. I can cook anything on it that can be cooked on a wood stove, and as there is no time lost in waiting for it to heat up, it is the greatest possible convenience. It requires less attention than an oil lamp and I find that oil is cheaper fuel than wood or coal. In summer time I keep it on the back porch and in this way the house is never heated up as would be the case with any other kind of stove. Furthermore, it is perfectly safe.

MRS. LURA SKINNER.

MADAM: You should have this stove in your kitchen. It will do everything claimed for it. We will bring a stove to your home, show you how to operate it, let you try it a few days—then if it is not satisfactory we come and get it, you pay nothing. We will sell to responsible parties on easy installments.

A HIGH CLASS STOVE AT A LOW PRICE

The DAUGHTER of DAVID KERR

By Harry King Tootle

Illustrations by RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT BY A.C. MCCLURG & CO., 1913

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER I—Gloria Kerr, a motherless girl who has spent most of her life at school, arrives at her father's home in Belmont. David Kerr is the political boss of the town and is anxious to prevent his daughter's learning of his real character.

CHAPTER II—Kendall, representing the Chicago packers, is negotiating with Judge Gilbert, Kerr's chief adviser, for a valuable franchise. They fear the opposition of Joe Wright, editor of the reform paper.

CHAPTER III—Kerr asks the assistance of Judge Gilbert in introducing Gloria to Belmont society and promises to help him put through the packers' franchise and let him have all the graft.

CHAPTER IV.

Gloria could not understand why she was not of most importance, and was not a little piqued at the long wait in the cold while her father was with Judge Gilbert. Her only consolation for being late to the theater was that every one would be there to see her arrive. She knew that when she entered the box every one would who would be a diversion. Gloria was quick to notice a faux pas, and certain of her father's slips of grammar and lapses from punctilious etiquette had made her wish some companionship less blunt.

At the door she was met by Judge Gilbert, who welcomed her to Belmont with great cordiality. Here was a man who understood the necessities of life. Gloria's heart went out to him almost as much for the manner of his welcome as for its genuine warmth. As David Kerr had done when he had entered the house, the daughter gazed about her as she passed through the hall, and all that she saw was given the stamp of her approval. It was just another step in her growing appreciation of Belmont as it really was. She noted also the familiar terms on which Judge Gilbert and her father were. She had never doubted her father, yet this was a pleasing affirmative vote in her theory of Belmont life which had not been without its contradictions that day.

"I wonder if you remember Mrs. Gilbert?" said the judge as he ushered Gloria into the library. At her entrance, Mrs. Gilbert, a really gracious woman, came forward to greet her.

"How do you do, Miss Gloria?" she said. "It's a pleasure to find that you've come back to Belmont."

"I'm charmed to meet you, Mrs. Gilbert. Indeed it is nice to be at home once more and I'm so glad to have you say so."

The next bit of conversation puzzled Gloria not a little. She remarked it at the time, and even thought of it once after she had returned to Locust Lawn that night.

Judge Gilbert said quietly to his wife, "Mr. Kerr, dear."

At this Mrs. Gilbert turned, bowed slightly and merely said, "Good evening, Mr. Kerr."

"How d'ye do, ma'am," replied Gloria's father, to his daughter's surprise and also somewhat to her disgust. Mrs. Gilbert's greeting had been extremely brief, but her father's had been extremely provincial. Not only was it a slipshod manner of speaking, but it had been accompanied by a bow which Gloria thought uncouth. Her father had written once or twice about Mrs. Gilbert and Gloria, after the manner of society, was fain to enlarge upon the number.

"It's been my one wish to meet you, Mrs. Gilbert," said the girl. "I went away when I was so young that I can't honestly say that I remember you, but in his letters father spoke so often of you and of visiting here. Didn't you father?"

Thus appealed to, Kerr was forced to reply.

"Yes—Oh, yes, Gloria, but never mind that now."

Judge Gilbert was quick to come to the rescue, and forestalled further embarrassing remarks by saying:

"I suppose it will be a novelty for you, Miss Gloria—living in the country."

Gloria laughed, and her answer fortained due notice of what she intended to have in the immediate future.

"Father hasn't a motor car—yet, and I don't know how I'll like it."

"You'll get used to it," was Mrs. Gilbert's comment. "Locust Lawn is lovely in summer."

"But it isn't summer yet. And it makes it inconvenient when one wants to go out in the evening. I've often wondered why father didn't have a town house. He goes out so much and must be in Belmont so late at night that to my mind a town house would be a necessity. But there he sticks in the country like an old poke."

Her idea of her father's duty to himself was so strong that she turned to him to tell him just what she thought of him. During her speech Kerr had been exceedingly uncomfortable, but there was no way to stop her.

"That's just what you are, father," Gloria asserted stoutly, "for sticking in the country when you go so much in society—an old poke."

Again Judge Gilbert came to the rescue. "You forget he doesn't go out as much as when he was younger."

"Exactly. I don't get out like I did when I was younger," Kerr repeated. "I think every one will have to like me very much," Gloria complained with a whimsical air of doubt, "to come way out to Locust Lawn to see me."

She knew well that they would come, but a town apartment, something modern, loomed large in her mind. These remarks were only the pioneer work preliminary to a siege.

"I'm afraid Belmont will seem mean compared to the places you have lived," suggested Mrs. Gilbert. In the short time she had been with Gloria she had seen enough to make her certain that there were breakers ahead.

"Not at all," answered the girl. Judge Gilbert was talking earnestly with her father, and this gave her a chance to confess privately to Mrs. Gilbert.

"It seems good to me because it is home, and I can do as I please with out comment. I mean to live my life to the full, just as do other girls whom I visit. Except when I've been with them, it's been chaperon and school, school and chaperon for so long that I'm honestly glad to get into a house where no one rushes in every few minutes to see if I'm reading a French novel or writing love letters to the chauffeur."

Mrs. Gilbert laughed heartily at the martyrdom Gloria had suffered, and promised that such would not be her lot in Belmont. When Mr. Kerr joined them she went to summon her other guests.

"Judge Gilbert has been telling me, Gloria," Kerr began, "that things was quiet here just at this season. Now California—"

"Telling you!" repeated Gloria. Why did her father need to have any one tell him anything about Belmont? Then wasn't she excuse enough for all the gaiety possible?

"Ain't got nothin' against California, have you?" Kerr asked, ignoring her exclamation.

"I don't know." She turned away from him, conscience-stricken at her tone of decision. "I wanted to come home, yet."

"Don't you like Locust Lawn, girl?"

"Yes, yes," she answered quickly.

"But—everything is so different from what I imagined it would be. Give me a little time to think about the California trip."

At that moment Mrs. Gilbert returned with the guests who for some little time had been entertaining themselves in the drawing room.

Mrs. Hayes and her husband were first introduced to Gloria. While they exchanged a few pleasantries, Wright,

CONDITION AND ACREAGE OF COTTON CROP

J. B. Turner, one of the leading cotton men of Memphis has issued a report, based on replies from correspondents all over the South, indicating that the increased acreage over 1912 is 102 per cent and the general condition 83.1 as compared with 78.1 at this time a year ago.

Oklahoma leads all the states in the way of increased acreage, the figures being 110. Oklahoma and Tennessee lead in the general condition, this being 92 per cent. A year ago Oklahoma stood at 78.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

J. L. Barringer and wife and sixteen others left this morning on a fishing trip to Blue.

Jim and Amos Bullard have returned from Roswell, N. M., where they were called by the illness of their mother. She was improving at the time they left, however.

Prof. E. A. McMillian of the Ada normal, who is a newspaper writer of no small ability, was the author of an excellent article in Sunday's Oklahoman dealing with Cherokee history.

In order to make some repairs in my barber shop, I have moved temporarily to the Gubin-Barack old stand on East Main street for a few days.—L. J. CROWDER. 43 2t

It was rumored on the streets this morning that there had been a shooting scrape west of town Sunday night, but an investigation proved that the rumor was unfounded.

"The Road to Ruin" is the title of an absorbing drama that will be presented at the DeSota this evening. This picture deals allegorically with a faithless woman. The other part of the program is a lively story entitled: "Express C. O. D." Other good ones coming.

This evening the citizens of Ada will have an opportunity to witness a performance by Fred Faunt Le Roy, Ada's only professional stage artist. He will appear in some fine singing and dancing numbers, also will entertain on his one-stringed fiddle. You can't afford to miss this. Also a good picture program.

Dr. S. P. Ross returned Saturday from an extended trip to Corpus Christi and vicinity. Among other places visited was the town of Taft which is on the ranch of C. P. Taft, brother of the former president. The town, like the bog farm and ranch, is the property of Mr. Taft. The bank, stores, gin, compress, packery, and other things, as well as the houses, are all a part of the big estate. The farm contains 2,700 acres and is run with all the system required to handle any other big business enterprise. The doctor says it is kept as clean as a well tended garden and made to pay well.

DON'T TRIFLE WITH COUGHS OR COLDS.

Many Have Filled Consumptive Graves Because They Neglected a Cough or Cold.

You never know how soon a cold will become a serious malady. It may be in the head to-day; in the lungs to-morrow and the next day you may be fighting deadly pneumonia for your life. It's much the same with a cough. Inflamed and cough-worn throat and lungs offer the best chance to consumption germs to begin their murderous work. There's only one way to prevent these deadly diseases getting a hold on you. As soon as a cough or cold attacks you, take Dr. King's New Discovery until you are entirely cured. Sometimes a dose or two will do the business, saving you suffering and a doctor's bill. Thousands of cures like these below prove its wonderful power to cure coughs and colds.

"I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption to-day, if I had not used this great remedy."

"I take great pleasure in recommending your Dr. King's New Discovery for the benefit of suffering humanity. It's a thoroughly reliable remedy for all coughs, croup, lung troubles. We have used it in our family for fourteen years and the best results. It saved my mother when two doctors gave her up. She had a very severe case of pneumonia and was in bed seven weeks and part of the time 'out of her mind' so that she did not know me. I told her to get me two 50c bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, which he did, and on taking it she soon began to improve, and four bottles cured her entirely. You may publish this if you wish and I will answer all inquiries, with postage enclosed for reply.

"Yours respectfully,
"Wm. Cogger."

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CLUB CONTESTS

The rules and premium lists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Club Exhibits at the State Fair and Exposition, Oklahoma City, Sept. 23-Oct. 4 has just been issued. It shows that 566 premiums, varying from $1.00 to $150.00, with a total of $2,630.00 are offered boys and girls in the Corn, Kafir, Cotton, Canning and Pig Clubs.

One of the new and interesting features of the 1913 contest will be the display of canned fruits and vegetables by the Girls' Canning Club. There are 1500 girls in the club. An average of only one jar or can by each member would make the largest display of canned products ever shown in the state.

Another new feature is the Pig Club Contest. Any member of a Corn or Kafir club may enter one pig in the county contest. Two boys and their pigs may be sent from each county to the State Fair, where prizes will be awarded on gain in Berlin, where their Majesties are weight, market type, character of iting the German Emperor.

carcass, and story of "My Pig and How I Fattened it." The pigs will be sold at auction, slaughtered free the packing houses and shipped local purchasers. It is possible for some boy in the Pig contest to win $90.00, besides his trip to the State Fair and Exposition. The rules provide that a boy should have two neighbors weigh the pig and report its weight, age, color, and earmarks. Pigs must not be over 12 months old Oct. 1, 1913.

Write Boys' and Girls' Clubs, Oklahoma City, for State Fair rules and other information.

Birthday of Queen Mary

London, May 26—The forty-sixth birthday anniversary of Queen Mary was celebrated at Windsor today. The bells of St. George's chapel and of Windsor parish church were rung, and a royal salute was fired in the Long Walk, Windsor Great Park. Many messages of greeting were despatched by relatives and friends. Zes will be awarded on gain in Berlin, where their Majesties are weight, market type, character of iting the German Emperor.

turn to look at her. A harmless little thought certainly for so pretty a girl as she. She tried to beguile the time by questioning Tom, but the driver had suddenly lost his tongue due to Kerr's order issued privately, and talked only indifferently on indifferent topics. He was grossly ignorant concerning matters which to Miss Kerr seemed of vital importance.

At last came her father with the announcement that she was to come in to meet Judge and Mrs. Gilbert. The girl was torn with conflicting emotions, being anxious to get to the theater and at the same time desirous of seeing how many years ahead of Locust Lawn was this house which she had been invited to enter. There was no reason why she could not do both, since meeting Judge and Mrs. Gilbert could mean only a few minutes more delay. They could then hurry to the theater, and if she was pleased with these new acquaintances she would urge them to join her. Loyal though she was, she would welcome any one
